Reflections

Luke chapter 6 verses 27–31, 36–38 are the following you who hear me, I say: Love your enemies, do good to those who curse you and pray for those who maltreat
 you. If anyone slaps you on one cheek, turn and give him the other;
 if he takes your coat, let him have your T-shirt as well. Give to all who beg of you. If someone takes what is yours, do not demand it back. Do not retaliate, but leave room for your enemy. If he would have them do to you. Be compassionate as your father is merciful. Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned.
 Pardon, and you shall be pardoned. Give, and it will be given to you.
 Good measure pressed down, shaken together, running over into the fold of your garment. For the measure you use will be measured back to you.”

In the days of the American Revolutionary War there lived in Ephrata, Pennsylvania, a pastor by the name of Peter Miller, who was a friend of George Washington. There also dwelt in the town one Michael Wittman, an evil-minded man who did all in his power to abuse and oppose the pastor. One day Michael was involved in treason, was arrested and sentenced to death. The old pastor started out on foot and walked the whole 70 miles to Philadelphia to plead for the man's life. He was admitted into Washington's presence and at once, begged for the life of a traitor. Washington said, "No Peter, I cannot grant you the life of your friend." The pastor then told him, "He is not my friend, in fact, he is the bitterest enemy I have." Washington amazed said, "What? You've walked 70 miles to save the life of an enemy? That puts the matter in a different light. I will grant the pardon." Peter Miller took Michael Wittman from the very shadow of death back to his own home in Ephrata — no longer as an enemy, but as a friend.

There are many people in our society, such as this pastor. Christ inspires their conduct. They are conscious that while an "eye for an eye" appears three times in the Scriptures, the concept of mercy and forgiveness appears more than 3,000 times. Jesus taught that we should practice forgiveness and mercy rather than revenge and ruthlessness.

The forgiving and merciful person does not harbor grudges and is not eaten up inside by wrath and anger. Those who are forgiving do not cut themselves off from every person who offends them.

I'll end this with a poem.

St. Dismas Praise Report

On September 30, Stephen Gurley celebrated the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist. Through dedicated endurance and a leap of faith, he is now a member of the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church. It is wonderful to witness the continued growth of the St. Dismas Community.

Our thanks to Father Leonard R. Klein for his presentation at our retreat on September 29, and for presiding at mass with Father Jackson, September 30. His generous gift of time blessed us all.

Thanks to Carlene Sandella for her presentation to the RCIA program on the seven sacraments: Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Marriage, Holy Orders, Reconciliation, and Anointing of the sick. Her assistance in the instruction of the Catholic faith is essential to the growth and harvest of our community.

A final thanks to Sally Milbury-Stein, for her inspiring messages against the death penalty and respect for life.
